First Nations Disability Advocacy Services

First Peoples Disability Network (FPDN) is the national peak for Aboriginal People living with a disability representing the rights and voices of First Nations people with disability, their families, and communities.

WHAT IS DISABILITY ADVOCACY?

Acting, speaking or writing to promote, protect and defend the human rights of people and to support their voice to be heard.

WHO IS IT FOR?

You can receive advocacy if you are a person living with a disability, or you are a guardian/carer representing someone with a disability.
